7th Forensic Isotope Ratio Mass Spectrometry Conference

INVITATION

The Research and Innovation Centre of Fondazione Edmund Mach is organizing the 7th Forensic Isotope Ratio Mass Spectrometry Conference which will be held in San Michele all'Adige (Italy) from 16th September to 19th September 2019 (<https://eventi.fmach.it/firms2019>).

FIRMS 2019 is an opportunity for scientists, technicians, and experts interested in forensic application of stable isotope analysis to discuss a variety of topics (including illicit drugs; explosives; packaging materials; hair, fingernails and other human remains; foods and beverages as well as more general aspects of forensic isotope analysis), and to connect and share research in a welcoming forum.

We invite your institution to play a significant role in this important meeting. Please be assured that in making a commitment to become a major supporter, your Institution will be ensured high profile exposure at the Conference.

We would be more than happy to discuss the overall scope of the programme and the possible financial support from your Company. We look forward to hearing from you at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Federica Camin

Luana Bontampo
